

First floor of hospital addition taking shape

October 27, 2009

Concrete troweling at Boone County Health Center.

Concrete was poured Monday, Oct. 26, for the first floor of the Boone County Health Center Phase III addition.

The finish troweling (above) was underway by Monday afternoon.

The project remains about one week ahead of schedule. Block work to tie in the new ambulance garage with the main building was completed last week.

Written by jdickerson · Filed Under Business |