

Courthouse plans nearly ready

September 15, 2009

Boone County Commissioners reviewed preliminary blueprints and discussed a timeline for the courthouse renovation project with their contractor Monday.

Joe Beckenhauer of Beckenhauer Construction, general contractor, said final copies of the blueprints should be available in about three weeks. They then expect to solicit bids from subcontractors. The construction work should begin by November.

See the Albion News Print Edition for further details.