

04/01/2009

Move-in Ready

A 50-ton crane lifts cells into place this morning for the new Buffalo County jail.

The crane placed 24 of the 5,000-pound, two-bed cells Monday and was to set 36 in place today, construction superintendent Carl Gibbs said. Four cells will be stored to leave a space for equipment to get in and out of the jail during construction.

Brad Norton, Kearney Hub

A 50-ton crane lifts cells into place this morning for the new Buffalo County jail. The crane placed 24 of the 5,000-pound, two-bed cells Monday and was to set 36 in place today, construction superintendent Carl Gibbs said. Four cells will be stored to leave a space for equipment to get in and out of the jail during construction.

©Kearney Hub 2009