To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to let you know how much we appreciated working with Beckenhauer Construction on our recent project at Norfolk Junior High School. Brian Hergott and Tony Chambers were excellent representatives of your company. They were very friendly, accommodating, and informative. Since construction is not something I learned in my Educational Administrational training, both Tony and Brian were very patient and willing to explain the process and procedures.

Now that the main part of the construction is complete, Brian and Tony have both continued to make themselves available to answer questions and help problem solve any complications.

Thank you for helping use with our re-modeling experience.

Sincerely,

Jennifer L. Robinson
